Songs and stories that remind us about what matters most

A blend of homegrown music and truth that transforms will stir your spirit and touch your soul at Northern Minnesota singer-songwriter Mike Birkeland will share a mix of original songs and stories that reshape the narrative where faith, family and life intersect and remind us of what matters most in life.

With roots in the region, Mike's songs draw on familiar themes and imagery – homesteaders who cleared timber and turned the soil and small town, main street rural Americans who built a nation through faith, hard work, perseverance, and determination.

His songs blend messages about faith, family, resilience, and reasons for hope in a troubled world. Mike has performed in churches and communities across the state and region over the years – first with his family band, “Sarah Mae & the Birkeland Boys,” and now on his own (now that the kids have “graduated” and are on their own).

Enjoy original homegrown songs and stories that provoke thought, reinforce timeless wisdom, and inspire hope at
